Dearest Colleagues:

As the PCOM doors opened to the Class of 2003 back in August 1999, we crossed the threshold with mental fortitude, eager and yearning to soak up all the medical knowledge available to us. With our newly pressed, virgin White Coats, we stood tall and confident, for our futures as budding physicians had commenced. We endured that first year with grace – we reeked of Anatomy lab, were humbled by FBM, and thrived off of Cardiology and Pulm, for it was then that the knowledge began to come together.

Our confidence grew as our second year progressed – Clinical Medicine seemed more complete. The anatomy and physiology, pharmacology, micro, and path all began to mesh just in time. Boards was lurking ahead in the all too near future.

And, then there came Clinical Rotations. We stumbled through the hospitals being humbled by our superiors. A rectal here, a disimpaction there – we paid our dues. Soon enough we would pass the torch off to the up and coming third years. How good that would feel.

Finally, we reached our pinnacle year. We were well-seasoned fourth year students. The majority of us know for certain the directions we would take following graduation. And, those once treasured white “smocks”? Well, they began to lose their luster. Soon enough, we would trade them in for the longer version – the one that signified all that we had endured over those four long, yet short-lived, years of medical school.

Now, with the vast number of uncertainties we face in our world today – the threat of war, worldwide terrorist attacks, a waxing and waning economy – one certainty is that we will be forever bonded by these few years of our experiences together. Call it fate, call it destiny, call it chance, but for reasons beyond our comprehension we have been chosen to become and will thrive on being the elite and distinguished osteopathic physicians of America.

Congratulations to all and may our futures be healthy, fulfilling, and memorable.

Sincerely,

Thea M. C. Barton, D.O.

Dear Class of 2003:

The entire Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine joins me in extending heartfelt congratulations to you, its 112th osteopathic medical graduating class. Your presence has enormously enhanced our community, and our pride in you is unbounded.

You graduate from PCOM at a time of unparalleled excitement. New instructional tools, research endeavors and community outreach are enhancing the College's mission attainment. We hope that you will join us in fostering the continuation of the College's good works. PCOM will always be your family.

William Jennings Bryan once said, "Destiny is not a matter of chance; it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be wanted for; it is a thing to be achieved." As you forge your destiny by applying your osteopathic medical education to the healing of multitudes of grateful patients, I know that you will derive the fulfillment and joy that you so richly deserve. May the knowledge that you make brighter the lives of others be a source of sustenance throughout your lifetime.

God bless you!

With warmest regards,

Matthew Schure, Ph.D.

Dear Colleagues:

Your class, the Class of 2003, is the first class to have developed a Vision Statement. During orientation everything about PCOM and your fellow classmates was all so new to you, but you quickly bonded. Whether you were in an amphitheater, a classroom or sitting out on the lawn, you came together as a class. You established and dedicated yourselves to goals for your future patients, your colleagues, your college and faculty, your profession, your families and yourselves as osteopathic physicians. A job well done!

Four years have passed. Much has happened in the world and to each of you. I hope that the goals you vowed to during your White Coat Ceremony will carry you and guide you through your career as an osteopathic physician. May you seek the wisdom of your colleagues and your patients, for both will teach you much. May you continue to support your profession and your families, for they will rely on you for support throughout your life. And, last, your college and faculty. We have touched all aspects of your life as a future physician. Any one of us may be your patient, we are your colleagues, we are your profession, many of us are osteopathic physicians and we are certainly your family. As a member of this family, we look forward to seeing you again whether it is in one of the amphitheaters, a classroom or on campus.

As each class leaves PCOM, I charge it with the challenge that each of you is to serve your patients well, for they have entrusted their well being to your care. You are to help them become stronger, prevail through illness and be determined to overcome their infirmities. They are your fellow mankind.

Be at peace and be well!

Sincerely,

Kenneth J. Veit, DO, MBA, FACOFP

THE BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES PROGRAM OFFERS A BROAD CONTENT BASE IN THE BASIC BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES WITH AN EMPHASIS ON CLINICALLY RELEVANT MATERIAL AND ITS APPLICATION IN MEDICINE. THIS PROGRAM IS DESIGNED FOR THE COLLEGE GRADUATE WHO IS PREPARING FOR ADMISSION TO A MEDICAL SCHOOL OR HEALTH PROFESSIONS DEGREE PROGRAM. IT IS EXPECTED THAT MANY STUDENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED TO PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL UPON COMPLETION OF THEIR FIRST YEAR, BUT STUDENTS MAY DECIDE TO CONTINUE INTO THEIR SECOND YEAR TO OBTAIN THE MASTER OF SCIENCE DEGREE IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES.

THE D.O./M.B.A. PROGRAM OFFERS FUTURE PHYSICIANS THE OPPORTUNITY TO GAIN THE BUSINESS MANAGEMENT EXPERTISE NEEDED TO COMPLEMENT THEIR MEDICAL TRAINING TO SUCCESSFULLY RUN A PRIVATE PRACTICE OR MANAGE IN A HEALTH CARE SETTING. STUDENTS COMPLETE FIVE YEARS OF STUDY IN A SPECIAL JOINT DEGREE PROGRAM AT PCOM IN AFFILIATION WITH SAINT JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY LEADING TO THE DOCTOR OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE AND THE MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.

GRADUATE PSYCHOLOGY

CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDIES (CAGS)

THE CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDIES PROVIDES GRADUATE-LEVEL PSYCHOLOGY AND COUNSELING COURSES TO INDIVIDUALS SEEKING TO RESPECIALIZE IN CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY OR MEET CREDENTIALING REQUIREMENTS. THE DEPARTMENT OFFERS TWO CAGS SPECIALIZATION TRACKS: CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDY IN COGNITIVE BEHAVIOR AND THE CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDY IN PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY.

Robert DeYoung

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN CLINICAL HEALTH

THE MASTER OF SCIENCE IN CLINICAL HEALTH PROGRAM IS DESIGNED TO PREPARE HIGHLY SKILLED, COMPASSIONATE PSYCHOLOGISTS TO PROVIDE EMPIRICALLY BASED, ACTIVE, FOCUSED, AND COLLABORATIVE TREATMENT. GRADUATES WILL DEVELOP AN EXPERTISE IN THE APPLICATION OF PSYCHOLOGICAL THEORY AND TECHNIQUES TO THE TREATMENT OF MEDICAL PROBLEMS. THE M.S. PROGRAM TRAINS MENTAL HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS TO WORK IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIAN AND TO UTILIZE BIOPSYCHOSOCIAL MODELS WITHIN THE PRIMARY CARE SETTING.

- Mom and Dad: Thank you for all you have given me. Dad, you are the best doctor that I know. I hope to be as good as you. Mom, I hope to bring your compassion to my practice of medicine. I love you. Your son, Dr. Mark B. Abraham, Esquire.
- Nina: You are a wonderful sister. I wish all the best for you. Do us a favor and do not copy me this time if you leave the practice of law. Learn computers.
- My Family: Grandmom, Uncle Mitch, Aunt Donna and everyone else. I love all of you and appreciate the help and guidance that you have provided to me over these years be it Law School, Medical School or life in general.
- Class of 2003: Congratulations. We did it! To my friends and colleagues including but not limited to the Raven, Tony S., and the boys at the Bing, it just gets better from here. No matter where life takes us, I wish you all the best in health and success.
- Dr. Ken Bunning
Dr. Amy Davis: You are true friends. You supported me during one of the more trying times of my life. Thank you both.

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE MANY GREAT PEOPLE WHO HAVE TAUGHT AND INSPIRED ME ALONG THE WAY. YOU ARE VERY MUCH APPRECIATED!

Ronnie: Well, we made it! You know that I would never have begun this journey without you. Thanks for being there to help me at every stage, especially when I got discouraged. Your strength and imagination has led us here and I look forward to all the adventures to come! I know you won't mind that I put down in words how wonderful life is with you in the world!

Jordan and Samantha: You are the Best Girls in the Whole World! Your love is a daily reminder of the things that matter most in life.

Mom and Dad: You have given me tremendous support and encouragement. We never could have kept things going so smoothly without your help. Maybe you'll get to go on that cruise after all....

My Classmates: Many of you have been among the brightest and friendliest people I've known. I wish you all wonderful careers and personal lives. Know yourselves, Heal yourselves and Be Good.

Dianna Lazur, D.O.: You made me confident and relaxed in my developing skills while emulating the healing spirit of medicine.

Mom & Dad- The two of you have always been my rocks, my supports and my guidance. I know that everything that I am and everything that I will evolve into is all because of my unbelievably loving and selfless parents. I thank you for always being just a phone call away- even if it was another of my infamous car problems.

Lisa & Lindsay- I could not imagine growing up in the Amoroso household without the two of you. We understand and encourage each other like only sisters can.

Mom-Mom, Pop-Pop, and the rest of the family- Thank you for being the most loving and supportive family one could ever dream of. In your own unique ways, you have each taught me the true meaning and importance of family.

The NE girls, the SJU crowd, and my roommates- From riding big wheels on Hickory Hill to kickball to the Muddy Duck to Happy Hours, the friendships we share are priceless. I am so fortunate to have remained so close to all of you. Thanks for the much needed beach trips, girls' nights out and study breaks.

Skip- Since that night at the Brew Pub, you have continued to light up my days. Thanks you for coming into my life and filling it with an infinite amount of love and laughter. I cherish each moment I was able to spend with your mom. She is a constant source of energy and a true inspiration.

PCOMers- Thanks for the memories and the friendships that will last a lifetime. I will never forget- "Big Red", Davis's couch, late night studying with Diamond, Club Iguana, the vegetable game, rugby games, the golf cart, jelly bean rolls, wrestling on New Years, "Carl" in St. Martin, peanut butter fights, Tequila Willies, and Yucker in Laport. Each of you has a special place in my heart and I could not imagine this journey without my fellow classmates.

Mom & Dad: You have both sacrificed a great deal in order to provide Jody and I with the best life has to offer. You both filled my childhood with loving memories, laying a strong foundation for me to hold steadfast to my dream of becoming a physician. Thank you, Mom and Dad. I love you.

Jody: You are such a spunky sister!! Your carefree nature is a great quality—could you pass some of it on to me? You make life fun for your older sister. I love you.

Uncle Chuck: Your interest and understanding into my schooling is something I appreciate greatly. Thank you for being there to ask questions and listen.

Dave: What will the next bend in the road bring? You are such an integral part of my life—life is small without you. May our future be as strong as the memories we share. I truly love you, David.

Pepper: The best puppy in the world!! Your unconditional love is what brings me home.

Grandma & Grandpa: How fortunate I am to have your love. Grandma, I just love you so much. Your wit and your charm are your best qualities. You are my best friend.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for all of your love and support during my educational pursuits. You have ALWAYS given me everything I need and plenty of what I want.

Jackson, Sam, Nicholas, Shelby, and Jacob, Kent, Sheila, Michelle and Jim: Each one of you provided me with all of the laughter, entertainment, and, most importantly, the support needed to complete this long endeavor. All of you make me smile every day!

Phil, Terry, Davis, Alex and the rest of my PCOM friends: Thanks for the many laughs, drinks and opportunities to beat every joke, movie quote and insult into the ground before moving onto the next. Don't worry, I will continue to say what everyone else is thinking!

To my Mom: No words can really express my feelings of gratitude. Running down the sidelines at my Little League football games, encouraging me in school and music even when my performance was less than stellar, and the huge sacrifice you made in putting me through college is more than I can ever repay. Thanks for the love and support.

To my Dad: Thanks for being a loving father. Thanks for trying to teach me the subtleties of life's little lessons and for letting me make my own mistakes when I didn't listen. Thank you for making me feel like I could achieve anything I wanted, and for pushing me when I needed a little motivation. You instilled in me the work ethic that I have today and I'll always be grateful for that.

To my sisters Kelly and Melissa: You two have always been a source of support for me. Even though you give me more grief than I deserve, I love you both and I know that you guys are always there for me.

To my wife Alice: Our marriage was only a year old when we packed up and left on this med school adventure. I know that sometimes you probably think it was more than you bargained for. Thank you for all of your love and support through such a trying process. I'm not sure that I would have made it without all of the little things that you did "behind the scenes." I only hope that during the course of our marriage I can somehow return the love and kindness you showed me. I love you.

To my beautiful wife:

Lauren, I dreamed of you since sixth grade and on our wedding day you made all my dreams come true. Without you I would never have achieved this milestone. You have been my strength, my guide and my best friend. You're everything to me. I love you a million times a google times a billion times infinity plus WUV!

To my parents:

Mom and Dad can you believe your 5lb 2oz little baby is a doctor? Neither can he. You both have been there for me in every way imaginable, and I am forever grateful. Dad you have paved the path for me, and mom, you have given me the compassion to walk down it. I love you with all my heart.

To my brother:

You will always be the best, best man.

To my grandparents:

Papa Nate, Bubbie and Lou B I miss you all very much. Grammy you're my only link to my past and the time we'll share together makes me look to the future.

To my boys:

Sperl, JT, Gins, Tdog, Kenny, Campbell, Golloto. Thanks for all the amazing times. In the quest for osteopathic bliss you guys have been my spine.

I must first thank God for blessing me with a wonderful family and so many great friends. I love you all and truly am one of the luckiest people on earth because of you.

Mom and Dad: You both have worked so hard all your life to give me and my siblings the very best. I am so grateful for all the support, encouragement, love and even discipline you have given me. You are my inspiration and I only wish to be half the person you are.

Cami, Sonya, Rifaat and Joseph: You give me more support and strength than you will ever know. I admire you so much-your beauty, talent, and intelligence. Thank you for always being there for me. Sonya, you are my best friend.

Brett: Thank you for so many great memories together. You give me so much love and confidence. With you by my side, I feel like richest girl alive. I will love you always.

To my friends: I will be eternally grateful for always being there for me. Sarah and Jamie, your love has helped me through so much in my life. You are my friends and my sisters forever.

Livia: How fortunate I am that God let us meet. You are truly gifted. Thank you for making medical school so much fun and memorable and for being a wonderful friend. I can't wait for our new adventures.

Grandma: You taught me to be compassionate, loving, and generous. How much I miss you but I know you will always be my Guardian Angel.

As I walk through life, or what sometimes feels like stumbling, I am constantly reminded of the magnificent experiences and relationships for which I have been afforded. It is the unconditional love and support of my parents that has shaped the individual who I am today. Fortunate to be my parent's top priority, I am impelled to perfect the qualities they have instilled in me. The sacrifices they have made for the betterment of their children are unselfish and numerous. Being the "little one" in the family, I have been granted the unique experience of watching my brother and sister mature and succeed. Words cannot express how much my siblings and sister-in-law mean to me, they are my best friends. Without the presence of their unique personalities and beautiful smiles, life would most certainly be mundane. They are my constant source of wisdom, inspiration, motivation and priceless memories. Throughout life, I have met many acquaintances, but few true friends. Renee's beauty, grace and laughter brighten any dismal situation. Undoubtedly we will continue to strive for success in this esteemed profession side by side. Sondra is my safety net and soul mate in this concert of life. When I stumble, her gentle hand keeps me from falling. I love her more than words can tell. Blessed with this opportunity to join the ranks of great physicians, it is my sincere hope that I can make not only my friends and family proud, but also my profession.

Psalm 111:10

To my precious doggies (especially Pippy), kitties, and family who have enabled me: Mother, you are my closest friend. Your unfailing forgiveness, generosity, and unconditional love have been more priceless than all earthly treasures. Father, your willingness to do absolutely anything for me as well as your giving spirit and love are the qualities that help uphold me. Matt, thank you for your deep emails and conversations that have ultimately helped me become more accepting, empathetic, and forgiving. The enduring prayers of you, Liz, have been one of my biggest blessings. You have the most compassion, generosity, and loyalty of anyone in this world. I cannot express the gratitude I feel that you chose to use the fruits of those attributes on me. And, my dear, dear Benny, my brother and close friend...I have watched you grow into the kind of person that I wish my sons to be. You think before you speak, you make sure your decision is wise before you act, and you always make it clear that you hold me dear to your heart. You have grown into a gentle, compassionate, and insightful man. You WILL be something great. And, thank you Jesus Christ. I adore you all.

It doesn't seem that long ago
When we first donned our short, white coat;
We dissected cadavers
Didn't think biochem mattered
And had no clue how to write a soap note.

After cardio and pulm was neuro and peds
A little gyn and endocrine fun;
Our transcripts were padded
With a point or two added
But where was Kriebel for boards, step one?

Off to clinical rotations, the hard work behind us
Eager for hospital demands;
Little did we know
It was our job to show
Our proficiency in rectal exams.

Our last year was upon us, and our brains were full
We marched on, strong and steady;
But rotations could bite us
We had senioritis
And thought... let's get on with a job, already!

Now here we are with our long, white coats
Medical school went so fast;
Our memories are fond
We have one common bond
We're osteopathic doctors at last!

Cheers and best wishes to you all.

Thanks to my family for your love and support
And here's to my beautiful wife;
We've come a long way
And I have one thing to say...
We're going to have a wonderful life!

I love you, D

First and foremost I want to thank my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, without him none of this would be possible. I thank Him for giving me the knowledge, skill and compassion to become a physician. Abigail - You truly are Daddy's source of joy! I can't believe how much my life has changed since your birth. I can't wait to watch you grow and see the world.

Mom - Well I've finally made it, Dr. Molnar! Thank you for all the years of love and support. Your caring, compassionate example has helped make me the person I am today. I couldn't have made it without you.

Dad - Thank you for always being there for me. All those long summer days on the ball field may not have gotten me to the big leagues, but they helped me develop the self confidence and work ethic that a physician needs.

Max, Molly, and Megan - The best brother and sisters in the world! I know it was hard growing up knowing that Mom loved me the best. You'll just have to get over it though, because becoming a doctor has only cemented my position as Mom's #1 Monkey Boy!! Thank you for all your love and help along the way.

Last but certainly not least...

Tia - You truly are the love of my life. Four years ago I took on two very difficult tasks - getting through medical school and starting a marriage. Looking back they have been the four most perfect years of my life. There were certainly difficult times - late nights at the library, nights on call, and months out of town, but you have loved and been there for me every step of the way. When I doubted myself, you reminded me that I could make it, and that I would be a good physician. As I prepare to enter residency with a new daughter I know it won't get any easier, but with you at my side I know that I can succeed at whatever life brings me.

Missy/Steph: I really did not realize how much you both meant to me until I went away to PSU. It's been fun to see you both grow up to be such great people. Steph, I am so proud of the way you're raising Dominic.

Dominic: My 5 years at PCOM were the 1st 5 years of your life. You've brought new life to our family and I look forward to watching you grow into a young man.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for your relentless love and encouragement throughout this pursuit. I am forever grateful for the sacrifices you made to give Heather and I the many opportunities we have had.

Dad, thank you for being my rational advisor, my quiet motivator, and my best coach of life. Mom, thank you for being a compassionate listener, my biggest fan, my greatest teacher, and my hero.

I can only hope to be half the mother you have been.

Heather: I look up to you in so many ways...funny that you are the younger sister! Thank you for being such an incredible friend. I am so proud of you.

Grandma and Grandpa: Your remarkable lives touch me in so many ways. Though you left us during my time at PCOM, you remain a powerful source of inspiration and guidance in all that I do. I miss you every day.

Mark: Thank you for believing in me. You are my greatest blessing. You are my sanity, my escape, my comical relief, my confidence, my home base, my light at the end of every tunnel, my future. You are the most honest, sincere, and patient being I know. You are my favorite person and my best friend.

The distance and the waiting are truly a small price for a love that is eternal. I love you. OHAPOEDP!

PCOM friends: I did not imagine I would develop the solid, special friendships that materialized over the past four years. The many many laughs and good times clearly carried us through all those hours of studying. I will treasure you always.

Grandma and Grandpa – In your passing I appreciate you more daily. I thank you for all the sacrifices you made for me and the unquestioning support you provided me. My successes are dedicated to your memory.

Mom and Dad – You gave me every opportunity and advantage growing up. Your love gave me the strength and courage to accomplish many things. I could never express how fortunate I feel having you both as my parents. I love you both.

Jamie (littleboss) – We have been through so much together – learning and growing along the way. Your caring, understanding, support, and love have done more for me than you realize. Words cannot express what it has meant to me to have you come into my life. I look forward to the future.

Matt and John – No one has been blessed with friends as faithful and supportive as me. You both have always been there for me no matter what or when. I would have never made it this far without you both.

The many others who have touched my life – GOD, Michael, Jeff, Steve, The Morales, Dr. Raskauskas and all at Retina, Dr. Cunningham, Jodie, Cat, Mike, Julea, Lu Ann, Marc, and TD.

I have been blessed with a wonderful family who has encouraged me and loved me unconditionally. During times when I doubted myself, my family was there to lift my chin and wipe my tears. During times when I was acknowledged for my successes, they were there to applaud and rejoice with me. Through their sacrifices, I was presented opportunity and will be forever grateful.

I have been blessed with friends who shared in my journey, whether walking the same path or along my side. Thank you for joining me in stresses and celebrations!

It has long been a vow of mine to never let a beautiful thing—simple or complex—go unappreciated. I was taught to give thanks for all that is around me. In all, is a lesson from which I learn and grow. So in a simple statement—I thank all of my lessons, for whether they knew it or not, they've helped me, become me.

Mom and Dad: There aren't simply enough words to thank you both for the past 28 years. You've always allowed me to find my own way and encouraged me to seize every opportunity. Thank you for never letting me give up on my dream... although there is still the Acme.

JANA: NOW you can tell people I am a doctor. You are my inspiration to never give up hope on a patient. This is for you.

Teenies: Thank you is inadequate. You are my guardian angels. I would not be here without your belief in me.

The whole fam family: No I will not be a psychiatrist. Thank you for being my home when I need to get away from school.

Deirdre: 13 years! Your friendship has been amazing. Thank you for always listening even when you would rather stick daggers in your eyes than hear about medicine. I love ya chica

Dr. Jenny D: Thank you for paving the way and making my life so much easier. You are a constant source of guidance, support and friendship. I miss your antics.

The Hood: We have come a long way since college. I am so very proud of all you have done with your lives. Thank you for understanding all the times I was a BAD FRIEND because of school. How scary is it that I'm a doctor now!!!

Wake Bombs: I would not have made it through the past 6 years without you. Thank you for the laughter, tears, vacations, road trips, study sessions, happy hours, and unwavering friendship. You have made this an incredible experience.

Grammy: I will never forget being a child, reading medical books with you before bed. No wonder I am a doctor!

Pop-Pop: You instilled the "work-horse" in me. I don't know what Mom and I would have done without you two. I am deeply grateful. I love you from the bottom of my heart.

Taffy, Candy, and Adidas: You are the best, not to mention the funniest, study buddies in the world! What ever would I have done without the 5 minute study breaks to pet and let you out to pee?

Lori: I will always be your "Mini-me". Thanks for being my doctor friend. You prove doctors can be fun!

MJ: You broaden my life in an extraordinary way. I am happy that you are in it, and grateful to be your friend.

Mom and Dad: Words cannot describe how much I thank the both of you. I'll never forget our phone conversation when I was in college... you told me I would never know what I was capable of if I didn't try. Now I can look back and thank you for that support and for the confidence, guidance and love that you have always provided me. I can see how proud you are and I owe that to the both of you. I love you.

Joel: It seems like yesterday that you went to college and I started medical school. I admire your achievements, initiative and intelligence and know that these traits will allow you to be successful in whatever you choose to pursue.

Troy: You have made the past seven years of my life so fulfilling and memorable. Being apart from each other through medical school afforded us with various challenges but we never let that change our love for each other. Your charisma and optimism capture me while your patience and support strengthen me. I am so lucky to have met you and I can't imagine my life without you. I love you and can't wait until we can finally be together.

Lindsay: I couldn't ask for a better best friend or roommate. You have always been there for me during the good and the bad times, always willing to listen and offer advice. You always know exactly what to say and do...what would I have done without you? You are like the sister I never had and I love you for that.

PSU friends: We've had so many good times and classic stories it would take days to tell them all. Thank you for all the memories and entertainment- it has been priceless.

COM friends: Med school just wouldn't have been the same without all of you. We've had to make it through some grueling times but being with all of you made it so much easier. Thanks for all of the memories, laughs and friendships and most of all- Congratulations!!

Mom & Dad:

I could have never done this without your love, support, and encouragement. You have instilled in me the determination and courage that has gotten me through the ups and downs of the past four years. You have accompanied me down the path that I felt determined to follow. I have made this accomplishment with you and because of you. You are my strength. With all my love, thank you.

Anthony & Dana:

Anthony, you have taught me the most important lesson in life: to set the highest goal possible, and achieve it. You could always make me laugh, especially when I need it the most. It has kept me sane through these years. Thank you most of all for giving me such a wonderful sister-in-law. Dana, everyday you are more and more like a sister to me. I love you both very much.

Maria:

We've grown up together from our days of dressing in matching clothes(did they think we were twins!?) to college at St. Joe's. I am so lucky to have grown up with my best friend. Although we've taken separate paths, you have been right by my side through the hardships I've faced to get here. I hope I have made you as proud of me as I am of you. You are more than any sister could ever ask for.

Saunil: Just wanted to say you are a great brother and friend and I wish you the most luck and happiness for whatever life has to offer.

To my aunts and uncles, cousins, and grandmother: I am sorry I cannot individually thank each and every one of you. All of you have given me so much love and support throughout my life, which I am deeply grateful for.

Susan: To a great friend and roommate-thanks for being like a big sister to me. You were always there to talk to about everything. You are truly an amazing person and physician. I wish you the most happiness for wherever life may lead you.

Annie, Marie, and Alan: To the greatest friends. Thanks for all the good times and fun we have shared throughout the years, and always being there when I need you the most.

Mom & Dad - How can I ever thank you for everything that you've done for me? Your support, encouragement and love have helped me more than you'll ever know. Thank you for always being there when I need you. I hope I've made you proud. I love you.

Lisa, Michael & Gavin - Thank you for being supportive of me. I know that I can always call you when I need to laugh, or when I need someone to listen. I am thankful to have you in my life.

Vinny - We've been through a lot together, thanks for waiting for me. You're always there when I need you to encourage me, to help me, to love me. I love you.

Non - You always make me feel good about myself. Through college and now medical school I've been getting a saying after each phone call and it always makes me laugh. I think your wonderful.

My friends - I am very lucky to have all of you in my life. We've had a lot of fun and good times together and will have a lot more in the future. Thanks for all the memories and for making medical school fun. Good Luck!

"Good, the more communicated, more abundant grows."

I now feel quite certain that my greatest accomplishment over these four years has not been the pursuit of medicine, but rather what I feel to be a somewhat more elusive and remarkable discovery – that of fully knowing my life's worth and that of those around me. I cannot attribute this at all to any curriculum, but rather that the very nature of the process itself has led me to contemplate a deeper understanding. To discover, without religious context, that human ambition, endeavor, and protocol are inherently artificial and must always be held subservient to the recognition that our feelings, our happiness, and our identity are what matter most, and must be protected at all costs. It is simply the realization that we do not merely coexist with those around us, but share a unique, limited moment in time that will one day exist only in the photos we leave behind. Therefore, I am thankful that I have shared these moments with such extraordinary people, and that life has become so predictably beautiful. It is my deepest hope and aspiration to share this beauty – the beauty of caring for others – with all of my future patients and colleagues.

The title of Doctor is mine, but the titles: husband, father, friend, and counselor I seek. The former gives me the right to do what I have dreamed of, but the latter will enable me to do it. When I look back, I see that God gave me a mind that could sift through the process of disease, but it will never solely enable me to perform my responsibilities. No, the blessings I need have been gifted to me through my wife's patience, wisdom, and quiet strength, my children's curiosity, innocence, and honesty, and my father's maturity, humor and loyalty. I crave these qualities, and they will one day give me the right to say I am, in large part, a reflection of those I knew and loved. Then I will be able to practice the art of healing.

To the Masters Class of 1999: We probably did not belong here on paper, but here we are! You are some of the finest people I have ever known. Never fail if you are given the chance to help someone fulfill his or her dream. Never forget that someone took a chance on most of us.

KEEP THE FAITH

I've seen the lightning flashing, heard the thunder roll.
I feel the cold wind blowing...trying to conquer my soul.
If I just hold my peace, let the Lord fight my battles...
If I just keep the faith through the night.

I hear the voice of reason telling me to fight on.
I know I've come too far to turn back.
The joy is gonna come tomorrow.
But I go through the fire...I shall come out as pure gold.
When problems come you just keep the faith.
Let Him fight your battles.
Things will turn around....
If you just keep the faith!

My Aunt Jo sent me a letter four years ago...

"As you journey through life, choose your destinations well, but do not hurry there. Know that the true worth of your travels lies not in where you come to be at journey's end, but in who you come to be along the way."

To family and friends: Thank you for everything. From listening to ridiculous stories, joys and hardships, to understanding when I seemed to fall off the face of the earth for weeks at a time. "If I have been able to see farther than others, it was because I have stood on the shoulders of giants."

Bill and Elias: You two are truly an inspiration. Four years ago, Bill, you said we were all going to medical school, but I was the one who had to go to class. In many ways, you two worked harder than I did to make sure this road went as smoothly as possible. I could have never made it through each day if I didn't have you to come home to every night. You kept me grounded. You made sure I never lost sight of what was important in life. I wouldn't have done this any other way.

Four years later, we definitely know the answers to those questions. I could not have done this without your constant support, love, and understanding. You have been my rock and my best friend. I promise to always do the "square technique" on your back whenever you need it. We made it, Mrs. Dr. Foltz. I love you always.

Mom & Dad: Everything I am today is due to you. You have instilled in me the drive to be the best person I can possibly become. Your continued love and support has enabled me to accomplish all my dreams. You guys are the best. Love you.

Gram, Pap, AJ & family: Thanks for your thoughts and prayers. You guys make excellent patients. Just because I'm the first Doctor in the family doesn't mean I accept all forms of insurance. Ha.

Glenn & Diana: Thanks for your support and providing me with the best wife I could ask for.

Emily, Elise, Preston: Set your goals high and believe in yourselves. Never give up.

The guys: Your friendship has meant everything to me. No matter where we end up in life, you guys will always be my best friends. Maybe now I can buy the beer.

Brownie Girl: The best cat ever! I hope you enjoy your dog sister.

Mom & Dad: Thank you for the many years of patience, support, friendship and love. I have learned more from the two of you than from anyone. Your never-ending supply of encouragement and advice has helped me through times that I never could have made it through myself. Without the two of you I would never be where I am today. I am eternally thankful and grateful to have been blessed with having the two best parents anyone could ever wish for. Thank you—I LOVE YOU both!!

Mark & Tim: I am indebted to you both for always being there for me and supporting me over the years. I am lucky to be able to call you not only my two older brothers, but also two of my very best friends. I have always looked up to you and admired you for who you are and what you stand for and I will continue to do so for the rest of my life. I love you guys—thank you for always being there for me.

Carrie: To my little chiddo. You are one of the very best things in my life. Without you I would have given up years ago. You are the most beautiful, kind, caring, and loving person I know. There never has been and never will be a sister like you. Because of you and your friendship and love I've made it this far. I thank you from the bottom of my heart—you are the best. I LOVE YOU!!

Corinne: To the love of my life. You have stood beside me from day one and always been there encouraging me, pushing me, and supporting me. Even through the hard times you continued to give me your love unconditionally and for this I am eternally grateful. I have never met anyone like you before. You are the most beautiful person in the world to me and I am honored to have the chance to spend the rest of my life with you. Thank you for being there—but mostly thank you for just being you. I LOVE YOU!!

Mom & Dad: I'm finally done! I know a simple 'thank you' does not adequately capture how much I have appreciated the impact you both have had in my life. You are the reason I am where I am. You have given me so much love and support, I cannot possibly express my gratitude. Thank for the pep talks, the advice, the unconditional love and for picking up the pieces when I needed you to. Thank you for teaching me to 'stop and smell the roses'. Thank you for raising me with values, morality, faith in God and the recognition of the importance of family. I can only hope you are as proud of me as your daughter as I am to have the two of you as my parents. I love you always.

My Sibs: I love you guys so much! Anything I have is yours. Thank you for making me smile. Christa - you are so much more than my sister, you are my best friend. Dino Jr. - I don't think you realize how much alike we really are; never lose faith in yourself. Stephen - you are my comic relief. I am so glad we are close despite our age difference. You are all the most important people to me and I am very grateful that you are a part of my life. I hope I have been a good big sister to you guys. I will always be here for you know matter what.

Gramm: You are my sunshine. Love you!

My 'PCOM Family': You all know who you are and you're all phenomenal! Thank you for making medical school so enjoyable. Dedicated to my beloved grandfather, Willis Witherite. Your smile from heaven on graduation day will flood my heart with love all over again.

Mom & Dad: Your unconditional love and support throughout my entire life, have given me the strength and courage to go after all my dreams. I could not have asked for better role models. Thank you. I love you.

Cliff: When this page comes to print, you will already be my husband. Again, I could not have asked for a more perfect soul mate. Your patience with me throughout the past four years has not gone unappreciated. I know I could not have done this without your support and daily encouragement to continue on. With you by my side, I can accomplish anything. Lastly, you put on hold your own dreams to allow me to fulfill mine. For that, I am eternally grateful. Love you with all my heart, babe.

Chris & Kim: The spoken and unspoken love between siblings has been a great source of comfort for me throughout life. I could not have gotten this far without your guidance and support. Although not often said aloud, I love you both very much.

Close friends: I am so blessed to have some many great friends in my life. No matter how far the distance between us, I've always been able to depend on you for advice or just a much-needed laugh. To my "family" at PCOM, you made my time in medical school both exciting and adventurous yet sane. I hope the friendships we've built will continue to grow way beyond medical school.

To the Class of 2003: Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened... Congratulations to all of you and best of luck in your future endeavors.

Jeff—I never expected to meet anyone as wonderful as you in medical school. You've been there for me every step of the way and I am grateful for that. Marrying you was the best thing I've ever done. I love the time that we've spent together so far, and I'm looking forward to many more happy years!

Mom and Dad—Thanks for your support throughout the years. You were always there to encourage me when I doubted myself. I've always appreciated the advice you've given, even though sometimes it might not have seemed that way. Thank you.

Doug—We've never really been close siblings, but I'm glad that we're growing closer as the years pass. I wish you good luck in all your endeavors.

Tecla, Katie, Farah, Hiren, Niles, Gina, Pastor, and all my other PCOM friends—I've had a blast with all of you over these last four years. I will truly cherish all of the time we've spent together. As we prepare to go our separate ways, know that you'll always be in my thoughts. May you succeed in all that you put your mind to.

Sally: You were there from the beginning. Knowing you're in my corner gives me strength. Thanks for all the memories, the laughter, and for bringing David, Rachel, and Sam into our family. I love you.

Sarah: Once we were enemies, now we are friends. It's amazing how our relationship has grown into a deep friendship based on a unique bond. It has been a joy to watch you mature and accomplish your goals. You are an inspiring younger sister and I love you.

Bubby Tillie: I thank God every day for blessing me with a 96-year-old great-grandmother who has been my confidant, best friend, and #1 fan throughout the years. Your selflessness is a constant reminder that we must always act out of love.

To the rest of my friends and family: To Bubby and Zayda, all my amazing cousins, aunts, and uncles both here and in Israel, and to all those that are no longer here on earth but will forever be in our hearts and memories, thank you for everything, I love you all. To all my friends, old and new, who are special people that I love like family. To Cherisa, you have shared so much with me, amazed me in many ways, and taught me about myself and love. Thanks for walking with me on this rocky road. Love ya'.

This has been an amazing journey. There are so many people that have been guiding stars in my life: namely, my mom, dad, brother, close friends and relatives from Miami, close friends from PCOM, and my wife and children. The truth is that I could send countless thanks to countless people yet in actuality I am only sending out one thanks—to God or the Divine Essence that flows through all creation. That said, I would like to acknowledge the people to whom I have been closest. I often reflect on these qualities and experiences:

Mami – an ocean of compassion and wisdom.

Papi - the epitomy of diligence and virtue.

My Brother Mikey – the embodiment of grace and talent.

My Peoples from Miami (from grade school to the F.I.U days through the thick and thin) - how to truly free the mind through deep belly laughter.

Sema Institute of Yoga and YRF – the meaning of life; the bliss of serenity and equanimity.

My Peoples from PCOM - the study groups, the late nights, the philosophical conversations, and all my peoples that we on a level I call "tight".

My Wife Pamela and Daughters Sofi and Ria - the essence of true love and intimacy.

Rob: You are my big brother and my best friend. Thank you for always being there for me, watching over me, and keeping me (mostly) out of trouble. Good luck in your future, I know you will be the best at whatever you decide to do. You always are.

Payce: I thought school would teach me all I would need to know about medicine. But no text tells me why I get butterflies in my stomach when I see you, or why I get tingles down my body when we touch. It was you, not any cardiologist, who taught me how the heart works, and it was your spirit that captured my soul. I love you with all that I have, yes, oodles of noodles.

Hold your head up because you have every right to. Tell yourself you are a great individual and believe in yourself, for if you don't, no one else will believe in you. Create your own life and then go out and live it!

To the strong women in my life who believe in me and I in them....

Charmaine--Thank you for four years of goofiness. I'll never forget all our "library tricks". I laughed so hard. I never had such a dear friend! You have taught me a lot over the years and no matter where I am, you can always get on your broom and fly over to see me!

Accamma--You were the first person I met at PCOM and now you have become a very cherished part of my life. Thank you for "spinning" with me over the years.

Jessica--Beautiful blonde girlfriend, you are truly the little sister I never had. Thank you for being crazier than me!!

I love you three dearly and medical school would not have been so much fun if it was not for you!!

Bob--To the most wonderful grandma anyone could ever have, thank you for all your love and support over the years. You have always wanted the very best for me and you have helped me achieve it. I Love You!

TO MY MOTHER--There is not enough space to express my love and thanks for all that you have given to me and for me. If it was not for you, I would not be where I am today. You have sacrificed endlessly for me; I hope I can make you proud. Mom, you're the best and I love you dearly!!!!!!

To my Dad: Thank you for all of the personal sacrifices you made throughout my life to help me attain my dream of becoming a physician. I am very grateful for your patience, unconditional love, and support. I will always work to make you proud.

To my family: Thank you for all of your prayers, wonderful words of encouragement, and continued support throughout the ups and downs of my education. Your confidence in my ability to succeed provided me with great strength and motivation.

To Pumpkin: Thanks for keeping me company many long nights I spent in my office studying for exams. Meow, mommy loves you very much.

To Casey: You are my partner in crime. Your efforts of helping me get into medical school and get through the past four years are forever appreciated. Thank you for your unconditional love. I look forward to experiencing many wonderful vacations around the world with you. I image us splitting a cheesecake for our 50th wedding anniversary on a warm summer night in an outdoor café in Slovakia. Božskávam ta z mojho srdca.

Grandpa and Grandma:

Thank you for making my childhood full with cherished memories. I admire your remarkable work ethic, generosity, modesty, persistence to pursue the goals of life, and most of all your love for our grand family.

Mon and Dad:

I am so fortunate to have such loving and caring parents. A great part of my achievement today is because of you both. You raised 5 children through incredibly difficult times with endless love and sacrifices. I am forever grateful. Thank you both for your unconditional support, encouragement, and love.

Dung, Cuong, Tien, and Hieu:

Growing up with you makes me proud to have brothers like you. I am so lucky to have the four of you as such a special part in my life.

Mom and Sisters (in-law):

You have always treated me like I were your own son and brother. I could not have asked for a better parent or better sisters. Thank you all for making me part of the family.

My Dearest Lannhi:

I feel truly blessed to be married to you. You make my heart smile and my soul fill with happiness. Thank you for your love, understanding, patience, and support throughout these last four years. I could not have done it without you. I am looking forward to growing old with you. I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART.

Mom, Dad, & Michelle- Words cannot describe how thankful I am for your endless love and support. Achieving this goal would not have been possible without all of you.
I love you very much!

Colleen & Danielle- A girl could not have asked for better friends than the two of you. Thank you so much for standing by me through what have been some very challenging times and for making this long road a bit more enjoyable.

Jen- In the short time that we have known each other you have become a very treasured friend. Thank you for always being there for me, for being such a great listener, and for welcoming me into your home. Good luck to you as you move on to bigger and better things!

Mike- You have become such an important part of my life. I have truly enjoyed all the time we have spent together, and all the trips and adventures. But most of all thanks for believing in me when I believed this goal unreachable.

Amanda: You are my best friend, my beautiful wife, and the only person I would choose to go through five years of medical school with. Always remember how far we have come and the bright future ahead of us.

Mom and Dad: There is no way that a few words or pictures could sum up all that you have done and continue to do for me. You have never wavered in your emotional or financial support; and I am the person you see today because of your guidance and encouragement. Thank you.

Lisa (my baby sister): Thank you for putting up with me. I know it's not easy to have a big brother; but remember I hold you to a higher standard because I know you can achieve it. You are an amazing violinist and an even better teacher. Keep making sweet music.

Grandparents: Gram and Pop thank you so much for your letters because they always would brighten the toughest of days, and for all of the support you have provided me. Grammy and Pop Pop I know you are looking down upon me everyday, and I hope you are proud of the person I have become. I miss you dearly.

Family and Friends: Thank you for being so understanding, for all of your encouragement, and providing me with so many good times.

Dr. Pat Lannutti: You picked me up when I was down. You provided me with opportunity and showed me how to go beyond it. You may call me pejorative and bombastic; but I call you my mentor and friend. Thank you so much for providing me with my medical education, "Under the Titanic".

Heavenly Father, for Whom I do all things. Thank You for my family, friends, and a life filled with abundant blessings. May Your will be done always.

Mummy and Papa: We made it! Without your tremendous support, encouragement, and love, I would not be here now. You taught me that perseverance, hard work, and trust in the Lord always bear good fruit. Mummy, thank you especially for always pushing me to work to my full potential, and for making many sacrifices to ensure a good future for Alvin and me. I love you.

Binuchan: You had me at "hello" back on January 7, 2001. Since then, you have changed my life, and I am a better person today because of you. You are the miracle of my life, a testimony that God really does listen and answer our prayers. Your unconditional love gives me incredible strength. I love you now and forever, darling. Chakkarra umma.

Charmaine and Pam: Girls, you have made PCOM an outstanding experience. From the many days in the library studying for exams/boards, to the countless hours lounging at the "mansion", we always had great fun. Thanks for listening to my endless "spinning" and keeping me levelheaded. You guys always made me feel good about myself. Your positive attitude and optimism are embedded in me and allow me to look at life in a new perspective now. I am so grateful to have you in my life. Long live BRIB!!

Alvin: Regardless of where life takes us, we have our core foundation in place – our parents and our family, which will always unite us. Remember, little brother, you can always lean on me. Thanks for being who you are and teaching me to be an individual.

Chitra, Ann, Tuyen, Libby, and Lisa: We've gone in different directions since college and high school, but our friendships remain strong. Thank you for all the support, love, listening, and laughs.

My PCOM friends: You guys are the best! I never expected to have so much fun in MEDICAL SCHOOL, but thanks to all of you, I had the time of my life.

Mom and Dad: Your son's a Doctor! At the moment, I am not sure who is happier you or me? From little on you encouraged me to reach for my dream. Every step and hurdle along the road you were right there with me. Your right Mom I do look good in white;) I love you both dearly!

Jerry and Vicki: Thank you for being you. Always offering advice, challenging me on my beliefs, making me rethink any situation and relentlessly supporting me. Thanks you so much! I could not have made it without your encouragement and advice.

Grandma Joyce and Grandma Victoria: I made it! I wish you both could have been there for graduation, but I know you are both watching over me. Grandma Joyce, you were and always will be a second mother to me. I miss you and I love you both!

Wendis: You are my soul mate, my true love. I love you dearly. I want to thank you for being by my side. How did I ever get so lucky to find you?

Jay: Thanks for always supporting your little sister's crazy schedule. May your computer knowledge help you to accomplish your dreams.

Grandpa: Only if you could see me now!

Scott: My past, present, and future wouldn't be the same without you. Not only are you my husband, but my best friend, my soul mate, my financial analyzer, and my companion. May our lives together complement each other and intertwine to be the best we can be. Thanks for your endless love, support, and devotion. May we have many more years filled with love and happiness. I Love You XOXO!

My parents: Thank you for the support you have given me and always being there when I've needed you. You've always been able to be my best friends, but also my parents.

My grandparents: I wish you were here to have shared in my accomplishments. I've really missed seeing you and being in your presence.

My other parents: You have given me so much support that I can't thank you enough. You have truly taken the phrase, gaining a son, to the fullest.

Madelynn: You're not old enough now to read this, but you will someday. The day you were born was one of the best of my life and every day since you do something new which gives my life new meaning. I'm so grateful to God that you are in my life.

Melody: You are and always will be my one and only. I don't know where I would be without you. With your help, I have now achieved all of my goals in life and I've been able to make new ones. When I need inspiration, I only have to think of you. I'm looking forward to growing old with you. I love you so much and more deeply every day.

To Mom & Dad, thank you for everything you have done for me. Without you, I would not have had as many opportunities nor would I be the person I am today. You are the most amazing parents anyone could ever ask for.

To Jon, without you my days would not have been as bright and our conversations as amusing. You are an inspiration and a role model for me. You have proven to me that dreams do come true and that hard work really does pay off.

To grandma, you have been an influential person in my life. You gave me advice when I needed it, a hug when I was sad, and were always there to take me shopping when I was having a bad day. I don't know what I would have done without you in my life. You are not only a wonderful grandmother, but you are also a close friend.

Be the change you wish to see in the world.

-Gandhi.

People may sometimes seem unreasonable, illogical and self-centered;
Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives;
Be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you may win some false friends and some true enemies;
Succeed anyway.
If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;
Be honest and frank anyway.
What you spend years building, someone may destroy overnight;
Build anyway.
People who ask for help may attack you when you try;
Help them anyway.
If you find serenity and happiness, they may be envious;
Be happy anyway.
The good you do today, people may forget tomorrow;
Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have, and it may never seem enough;
Give the world the best you've got anyway.
You see, in the final analysis, it is all between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.

Gram: You are the matriarch of this family, and the rope that holds us all together. Every sacrifice you've made in your life, has allowed me to accomplish this dream. You're the most precious part of my life, and I'm proud to be called your Grandson.

Dad: Thank you for being a father first, and a friend second. You have made me a stronger man than I ever thought possible. Life is incredibly easy when there is someone like you to fall back on. I only hope someday that I can make your life as easy as you have made mine.

Jane: We have gone through a lot together, and through it all I couldn't of asked for a better sister. I'm proud of the woman you've become, mainly because you make a difference in the lives of children that most people would just give up on.

Lynn: Dreams are a funny thing and no one ever knows how they'll work out. When I look back at what you've accomplished in life so far I'm amazed. Dad: I learned more than just how to change my car's oil in all the time we spent in the garage. I owe you for teaching me to tackle problems using skilled hands and common sense. Of all the tools you know how to use, your curiosity and your mind are the most impressive.

Eric: You helped turn a troublemaker into a doctor. You kept me in line by being someone I could look up to and trust. I am proud of you.

Grandma Bea: Thank you for all you have given me. I know how much this accomplishment means to you, but you'll never know how much you truly mean to me. I love you from the bottom of my heart.

Maura: For all the sacrifices and support during the past six years – Thank you. Life would be boring without you.

Mom & Dad: You are my strength, my support. Thank you for all the sacrifices you have made and everything you do for me. I love you dearly.

Peter, my knight in shining armor: I never believed in destiny until I met you. You have brightened my days and warmed my nights. Your brilliance will always intrigue me and your compassion, selflessness, and humor captivate me. You have made my dreams come true. I love you.

Rob: You have been so much more than a big brother and play pal to me. You are the one I can always count on. You are the kindest, gentlest person I know and I will always cherish our relationship and how close we are.

Shelly, my wifey, my best friend: Through all the good times and bad, the laughter and the tears, we have persevered, together. You are an amazing woman. Thanks for being you.

To the gang: Thank you for making PCOM so much fun. We made it this far together and this is just the beginning.

Minerva: thank you for the use of your body. I'll never forget it.

"In the pursuit of being better or best, do not overlook the joys of being"

Amidst the years of books, lectures, labs, and tests, my greatest lesson learned was not in the classroom. It was in life. Life taught me that the most wonderful events are those that are not planned, not scheduled, not foreseen. I have received the greatest joy in just discovering . . .

Mom & Dad . . . your hard-work, dedication to your children, your love for each other, and your belief in all of us has molded us into the successful, happy "kids" who we have become. You nudged me along when I slowed, eased me over the endless bumps in the road that I have encountered along the way, and constantly reminded me to be the strong, capable young woman you knew, even when I felt unsure of what I was capable of . . . don't worry, you'll never have to sell pencils on the corner . . .

Lisa & Michael . . . my confidants, my friends . . . I am so proud of you both. We have followed our dreams, caught them, and made them into reality. We may be miles apart geographically, but we are right next door in our hearts . . .

My Jamie . . . where do I begin? You're my partner, my best friend, my true love. You have been the most powerful force in my life, whether you realize it or not. I love you with every fiber of my being, and I thank you, forever, for loving me as much as you do. You have given me the greatest gift in our first child together, My Michael Angelo, my little munchkin . . . when you read this someday, YOU have been my greatest discovery, and you have helped me discover so much about myself. You are my little star . . . And to Our next little one on the way . . . I promise to be a great mommy, and know that we all can't wait for your arrival . . . you have a loving family who promises you the world . . .

My "Kids" . . . the stars of the Balducci Traveling Circus . . . you accepted me from the start, and I love each of you so much . . . Christian, Paulie & J.J. You are each such strong, unique, intelligent young men and woman (!). . . Dad and I promise to provide you with all that you need to follow your dreams and make them a reality, as our families did for us.

My Princess Kitty . . . who knew that our paths would cross in a dorm stairwell in 1994, starting what would be an amazing friendship? I would not be where I am if you were not in my life. You know my layers, what makes me, me . . . You are my rock.

My Buds . . . Sher-Bear, Shel-Bell, Jili-Billi, Colletti, Lutzi, Maffew Lewellis, To-Mas, Kimmie K . . . as Shell would say "You guys ROCK!!". I miss you guys sooo much . . . my survival of our time at PCOM is owed to you . . . my greatest lesson learned has taken me in a completely different direction (hey, I live in ALLENTOWN for cryin' out loud!!!!), but I know that I can find you at any time. Thank you for your friendship, showing me that good, honest friends do exist . . . I wish you all the best that love and life has to offer . . .

God my Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Mary, Joseph, angels, saints, and all those in heaven and on earth who have helped me and prayed for this achievement, I greatly thank you and humbly ask for your continued assistance.

Mom and Dad: With a deep love in my heart and emotions in my throat..., no words can adequately describe my appreciation, thanks, and debt to you. Without your support, encouragement, and sacrifice today would still be a dream. This degree is as much yours as mine. I am proud to be your son and hope, someday, to be as good a parent as the two of you are. I am in awe and love the both of you very much.

Chuck: You have been, are, and always will be in my heart. I admire your spirit, dedication, and character. You are a wonderful brother. I love sharing our continuing accomplishments with each other.

Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins: Wherever you may be, you have all shaped who I am. Thank you for your love and nurturing.

Katie: With all its "meanings," I am truly and completely in love with you. You are an amazing woman. I have enjoyed sharing the past years with you and look forward to a lifetime of memories. Thank you for believing in us. I would not have reached this goal without your loving and supporting smile, laugh, and personality.

Leo, Chris, Ryan, Todd...: I am honored to be your friend, your brother. We have shared a lot and supported each other through even more. Congratulations Doctors!

THOC and WCU Friends: We have some great times! Thank you for being there when I needed you. It has been fun!

Mom and Dad: Through good times and bad, I've always been able to lean on you for support. Graduation from medical school could never have been possible without your guidance. Dad, you've shown me how to balance dedication to career with devotion to family. Mom, you are the kindest, most understanding individual on Earth. You've shown me the value of honesty, caring, and compassion. Thank you both for providing me with the framework to not only be a great doctor, but a great person as well.

Kyra: It's hard to believe you are my little sister. Your work ethic and drive to succeed, coupled with your ability to balance an overwhelming social schedule, are an inspiration to me. Thanks for always being here for me.

Dawn Marie: From our days at Cal U to our trips to Maine and the Outer Banks, my love for you has grown each day. I've asked so much from you in our time together, and you've always given me more than I asked in return. You've been my best friend and biggest supporter, and I cherish each minute that we spend together. I love you!

Friends and Family: Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, friends from Cal U, friends from Philly, and my dog Cody: Whether it was dinner, rounds of golf, or excessive drinking at any one of a number of establishments, you've all helped me maintain my sanity these past 4 years. I hope we all continue to remain in close contact no matter wherever our future endeavors may lead us.

Danny: My husband, my love, and my life. We have been through so much in the last seventeen years. Thank you for always encouraging me to live my dreams and never complaining when those dreams kept us apart. You are the reason I breathe. You are my life. The past year has been a challenging one. You are the only reason that I made it through. Thank you for giving me two beautiful daughters and the chance to be a mommy. Kaya and Alexa will always be our angels. I love you more every day that passes. Thank you for being the best thing that ever happened to me!!!!

Kaya Jade and Alexa Jean (August 7, 2002): My two precious daughters. God must have had special plans for you when he took you up to heaven. In the few short hours that I had with you, you taught me more about love than I could have imagined. There will never be a day that I won't think about your beautiful faces and how much your daddy and I love you. You will always live in my heart and soul. I will work endlessly to make you proud of your mommy. I know that you are the two most beautiful angels in heaven. I love you more than words can express and I miss you so much.

Mom: I can only imagine what you thought when I moved to Hollywood!!! Thank you for always supporting whatever I wanted to do. I may not be famous, but now you can get free prescriptions. I love you.

Cliff: Well little brother...what can I say? You are the BEST!! You always make me laugh. You really have no idea how great you are, and that is what makes you so special. I love you.

Rachel -- You are hottest doctor I know. Thanks for the "car quizzes" and tutoring me in OMT. You know you my baby.

Mom & Dad- I'm sorry you have to sit through another graduation. At least this is it for me. Everyone else may say they have the best parents, but that's only because they didn't have you.

Jessie- Hope you enjoy PCOM. Remember to park in Pathmark - PCOM can't charge you for that.

Josh -- you are the #1 Stunna in my book. Study hard and skip the lifting; you can't catch up to me anyway.

Grandma Phyllis- you once bought a green shirt for Christmas and told me I looked good in green and should therefore be a doctor. I'm still not sure what that meant but here I am. Love you!

Grandma Peg- It's obvious I get my "medical genes" from you. Thank you for the old nursing stories. XOXO.

Thank you Lord for guiding my life, showing me the way, and blessing me with such wonderful family and friends.

Mom & Dad, the words "thank you" could never begin to express the gratitude and appreciation I have for all you have done. Your love and support have truly been amazing. Without you, none of this would have been possible. I can only hope that I will be as good a physician as you both are parents. I love you both with all my heart.

To Chris, my best friend, my soul mate, the love of my life...my husband. Your unwavering support and understanding have been tremendous. Thank you for guiding me during those tough times and for always standing by my side and supporting me. You are the most amazing blessing I have ever been given. I love you.

To Diana, my big sister - You have always been there for me both as a sister and a friend. Thank you for all of your support - I love you!

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope."

Jeremiah 29:11

These four years have been a twisted and crazy ride. There have been new experiences and surprises, new friendships and sorrowfully some losses. At first it felt like these four years would last forever, like we would never reach the end; and now that the end is here, it seems as though yesterday was only the beginning. There has been a lot of hard work and many struggles, but I wouldn't go back to change a thing. God has granted me many blessings and it is by His grace that I have come so far.

I thank God for my mom and dad. They have provided me with love and encouragement and made me the woman I am today. I thank Him for my sister who has been my role model, who watched over and protected me and taught me so many of life's lessons. And of course, I am ever thankful for my husband, Ross. —Babe, I love you so much. You have been such a special blessing in my life, always there to take care of me. Dad, Pete, Mom & Jim: Thank you all for the love and support you have given me. You have always been there to give me what I have needed, whether it was to hold my hand or to give me a good stiff kick in the butt! I would never have made it this far without you!

Dad: Thank you for my quick analytical mind, the five cent golf lessons, and for teaching me how to catch all those big fish!

Pete: Thank you for all the steadfast support only a brother could give and for always supplying the much needed story from back home. You have always been my best man.

Mom: Thank you for kindling my spiritual flame through all my growing pains. It is my greatest gift and has made me who I am today.

Mom and Dad: I owe everything I have achieved and everything I have become to you. Your encouragement, your words of wisdom, and your belief in me have been the inspiration throughout my education. Thank you for driving me to ambulance calls, getting me through orgo, and past a pre-med. advisor suggesting law school. Thanks, dad, for reminding me to "keep all doors open" and thanks, mom, for making me work hard at everything I do. You gave me the tools to succeed while reminding me that in success or disappointment, you are always there for me. Becoming your friend, mom, has been the best part of growing up, and dad, the pride in your eyes made this pursuit possible. Becoming a doctor has been my dream, but its realization is a reflection of your love and support.

"What does it mean to have you for a friend? If only I knew where to start...It means having someone to share with-whether it's thoughts, feelings, the big things that happen in my life, or just the little everyday things that don't seem important until you listen and care. It means having someone who understands me completely and knows what I am thinking before I even say a word. It means having someone who cares enough about me to really listen, yet loves me enough to give me advice and to honestly tell me the things I need to hear. I have always known that at every step of the way your love and guidance has been and will be with me; for that and all your countless sacrifices, I am eternally grateful. Thank you and I love you.

Ayaz & Jamshed: Wow, did we have some fights throughout the years?! I'm glad we got over that stage. I hope you guys know that despite the quarrels, no one can mess with my brothers and get away with it. You both are special people I'm proud to say are my brothers.

Lisa: I can confidently say that medical school would have been more of a daunting and turbulent experience had I not met you. It's crazy to me that we've only known each other for four years when it seems like forever. My happiest memories are of how much we laugh!! You're an incredible person and without your friendship I would be a very lonely person. You deserve all the best that life has to offer. I just hope you're aware that we are doomed to a lifetime of very large phone bills!

And to the many other friends made along the way- thanks for making medical school four of the most fun and memorable years. You know who you are and the journey was definitely easier because of you.

Querida Mama: No hay suficientes palabras para agradecer todo lo que has hecho por mi. Gracias por todo tu apollo incondicional, consejos, y sacrificios. Thank you for always believing in the "beauty of my dreams". I love you, mom!

Darwin, aka my "baby brother": I am so proud to be your older sister. You are becoming such a mature, young man. I'm proud of your determination and your strong character. Together we are achieving our goals and we shall make mom even more proud of us. No matter where I am, don't forget to call me. I will always be here for you.

My Family: Tia Alba, John, Annabelle...even from long distance, you guys are always concerned for my happiness. Thank you for all your love and support.

Alejandro: In such a short time, you have become my love and best friend. You are such a great source of strength and motivation for me. I'm so grateful we met that night at Circa.

Class of 2003: Wendis, Dan, Justin, Blanca, Elaine, Chi, Perla, Toni...thank you for being such great friends. Shelly, we had such a blast dancing... your spirit is contagious! I wish my fellow classmates the best of luck!!

It is my belief that no one person can ever accomplish great feats completely on his own. So too, I would not be able to celebrate this momentous occasion without the many people who have given support and encouragement throughout my life. Cathy – You are my wife and best friend. I am in awe that God has blessed me with such a precious jewel. You have truly been my strength and inspiration through these long years. Thank you for your patience through numerous evenings of studying and your faith in my abilities to be a physician. I wouldn't have made it without you.

Mom and Dad – The values and work ethics you have instilled in me have freed me to accomplish almost anything I desire to do. Thank you for bringing me up in the understanding of the Lord. You are truly a gift from God.

Harry and Carol – Thank you for your generosity and support over these years. I am blessed to have such great in-laws.

Mom & Dad: Thank you, thank you . . . that phrase deserves to echo at least a million times. Ever since I can remember you've both given me the support and encouragement that I've needed to get through this seemingly endless journey. But what I appreciate most is the unexpected letters I'd find filled with love and encouragement that have given me the confidence I have to today. I could have never gotten to the place I am today without your unconditional love and guidance.

Aaron & Martina: While I've had my head buried in books you've grown into even more amazing creatures. I miss the days when we had more time to play together. But I look forward to the future when we'll have more time to relax together.

To the friends I've found here: Thanks for being so supportive and taking me out for some fun and listening to me laugh and cry through this rollercoaster ride. And Kelly, I couldn't have gotten here without the hour(s) long talks you've allowed me to put you through over and over and around in circles, and even when I made no sense. ☺

First of all I would like to say Congratulations to the entire Class of 2003!

Sandra: I still can't believe you gave up being my roommate just to get married! Your friendship has meant so much to me and I wouldn't have traded that year in for the world. Wednesday movie nights and going out on the patio to be "bad" hasn't been the same without you.

Mark & Matt: Thanks for all the laughs. Hopefully you will never forget "Mini-Us"!

Shelly & Sherry: Or are you Sherry & Shelly? Either which way you guys are both awesome. We definitely had some good times together. Don't be strangers after graduation!

Wendy: You are the sweetest person I have ever met, please don't change that for anyone. Make sure to stay in touch, us Pittsburgh girls have to stick together!

Jessica: I saved the best for last! We went from friends and study partners to roommates and the best of friends. I don't know what I would have done without you these past four years; I would definitely have missed that other half of my hip! You are a fabulous person, don't let anyone ever tell you otherwise. I'm going to miss you like crazy next year. Hopefully we'll have really great cell phone plans!!!

Einstein once said, "If I have seen farther than others, it is because I was standing on the shoulders of giants." Heartfelt thanks to the following giants:

Heavenly Father -- Many-a-night I begged You to call me elsewhere. But, You provided the strength on which to stand and the grace on which to fall. May I always find You my first love and live my life for Your glory. You are the Great Physician.

Chris -- My beloved, my friend. You have been amazing stability on the journey to and through medical school - keeping me not only afloat, but also laughing (which is more important than staying afloat). I look forward to seeing where God calls us next.

Koch Family -- Mom, you are to blame for instilling a heart of compassion at a young age. Dad, you, on-the-other-hand, showed me how to practically apply that passion for people. Bekah, with the set, seemingly boring track on which I must roll, I've enjoyed living vicariously through your fun adventures. I am blessed with an incredible family!

Nottle Family -- Thanks for your day-to-day support and for the value you place in family. I have thoroughly enjoyed becoming 'a Nottle.'

Life Teachers -- From Kindergarten teachers through med school preceptors and patients, I have been the fortunate recipient of incredible teaching. Your efforts and investments are not taken for granted.

PCOM Friends -- Kristen, my sister-in-Christ, thanks for braving the rapids of med school along side me (and making stops for shopping and roller-blading along the way). Wish we would have met earlier in life, but I am thankful to have known you for these four years. Table 26, it was great to know you four at the onset of med school. You made the turmoil of first year more bearable. Sorry I got married and changed my name on you. GK, don't you still owe us a bit of personal information? CMDs, thanks for keeping me focused on my faith in the midst of med school. Matt, there are 500+ future doctors that will be better physicians because, in the heart of our training, we have known you and your courageous battle. Thank you for sharing it with us and for your example of a steadfast faith in God.

Papa: Thank you for teaching me humility, how to be a mensch, and how do things the "right way." Your countless words of advice and wisdom never go unnoticed, and your love for this family has always served as its backbone.

Mama: I've never met anyone so optimistic and outgoing as you. Your infectious smile and positive attitude on life continue to inspire those around you, myself included. You're truly one of a kind.

Zachary: My one and only brother, you've often served as a complement to me. I admire your ability to speak your mind and throw caution to the wind. You'll be successful no matter what field you chose to enter. Always stay close and remember your roots.

S-1/J-1: Thank you for letting me serve as your group leader these past two years. It's been a pleasure not only coordinating clerkship communication, but also watching you grow as future physicians. I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors.

Close friends at PCOM: These past four years have come and gone so quickly, it's incredible to think that we are now physicians. Thank you for letting me be a part of your life, hopefully I made you all laugh in ohne way or another.

Michelle: The love of my life, I met you in medical school but it seems like I've known you longer. Asking you out was one of the greatest decisions I've ever made. I look back on our time spent together as truly special, and hope we continue to create lasting memories of friendship and happiness.

You truly are a wonderful wife and mother, and Patrick, Liam, and I are blessed to have you in our lives. Thank you for all that you do each and every day. I will always love you more deeply than you could possibly imagine, and I look forward to the years to come by your side. For us...forever...

Patrick & Liam: No father could be blessed with two greater children. Since the day you were born, you have both brought joy and love into my life unlike any that I have ever known. I am proud to be your father, and I look forward to being by your side as you grow. I will always cherish every moment we have together. I love you both dearly.

Matthew: What can I say about my big brother? You picked on me for all those years and now we are great friends. I love you and thanks for being the best brother a little sister could ask for.

Danny: You are the love of my life. You have stood by me through so much: the many days apart, my bad moods, and hours of studying. You are the most understanding, patient, loving man I know and I am glad I will spend the rest of my life with you.

To my friends: You are the greatest friends anyone could ask for. Thank you for giving me a break from the craziness of school. I could not have made it without your words of encouragement and friendship.

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phil.4: 6-7

My immense gratitude and praise go to the most important being in my life – God Almighty, and His son Jesus Christ, for giving me the grace, strength and endurance to make it through the years in medical school.

I want to specially thank my family; beginning with my Mum, you brought me into this world and I am who I am today because of you. Thank you mummy. I love you so much. To my dearest sister Ngozi, you have been my support and stronghold in the past few years, and I feel very lucky to have you as my sister. My utmost love and adoration extend to the cutest and most wondrous kids in the entire universe – my niece and nephew, Bola and Toby. You both have always been the sunshine in my life. I also want to express thanks to my Dad, my brother-in-law – Remi, and my most beloved cousin and brother – Kennedy. You have all been there for me when I needed you. Finally, to my aunts and uncles – Oby, Lizzy, Kate, Ben, Anne, John, and my cousin Chi-Chi, I declare my love for you all!

Mom and Dad: You have given me more than I could ever repay. You have worked so hard to be able to make life easy for me and you never once complained. By your example, you taught me about generosity, love, and to always work hard for what I want. Thanks for always being there! I love you very much!

Coco: Thanks for always loving me and for making me laugh by remembering all my embarrassing kid stories. You are so special and I am so thankful to have you in my life. I love you.

Patsy and Bob: From the time we were kids and playing WWF wrestling, or getting in trouble and being put in separate bathrooms for time-out, to where we are now: I always looked up to you and wanted to do the things you could do. Thanks for being there to talk to, for making me laugh, and for being the best big brother and sister a girl could ask for. Go Flyers!

Rob: When I started medical school, the last thing I thought I was going to learn was to love someone as much as I love you. You have made me laugh so many times when I wanted to cry. You have pushed me to be the best person I can be. You have believed in me more than I have believed in myself. You are truly my best friend! I love you and am looking forward to spending many more happy years by your side.

Fun Is What You Bring With You.

God, my family, & my friends: I LOVE YOU! To justly express the gratitude I feel for you requires a lot more than words. You mean everything to me. Without your unconditional love, patience, & support, I would not have been able to achieve my goal of becoming a doctor. You have been there for me every step of the way, through tears & laughter, accomplishments & failures. Thank you for listening to me; understanding, advising, & consoling me; relying on me; sharing, crying, & laughing with me; and believing in me, especially when I lost faith. You are my strength and inspiration.

My parents – Mom & Dad, you have been a source of unwavering love and support for the past twenty-five years. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I love you both.

My brothers – Ed & Rick, it has been a long road for the three of us. Thanks for all of your guidance and advice over the years. You have both been wonderful examples of how hard work and determination can lead to success.

My sister – Kate, if there is one role that I treasure most in this life, it is being an older brother to you. Some of my favorite memories growing up were the times we shared together. I smile looking back to the time when I had the responsibility of brushing your hair in the morning and making certain the school bus did not leave without you! You have turned out to be an amazing young woman who continues to make me smile to this day.

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery."

-Galatians 5:1

I find it hard to believe that as a class we are finally graduating and assuming our roles as physicians. I am thankful for the many friendships that I have made while at PCOM. I will remember the fun times with my anatomy and boards study groups as well as the relationships that have evolved from my involvement with the Christian Medical and Dental Association. The Christian fellowship and weekly prayer meetings always encouraged me through school and more importantly helped me better understand God's unconditional love.

I give thanks to my father, mother, and siblings for their thoughtful prayers and encouragement. My sister Amy has been a blessing through her wise counsel, laughter, and realness. I thank my mother for her selfless attitude towards her children. Through my mother's example, I have learned to appreciate true servanthood. I hope to carry over this trait into my career.

As a future physician, my prayer is to serve and love the Lord with all my heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Mom, Dad and Kris: Thank you so much for all of your support throughout the years. I could not have made it through my life without being able to vent to you everytime that I needed to get something off of my chest. Which was quite often. Thank you for always listening and not telling me to go away. ☺ I love you.

H-Dogg, Niles, and David: Thanks for keeping medical school interesting and for always being around to talk. We better keep in touch throughout our careers. David, thank you especially for all of your advice.

B-Man: Words cannot express how much we all miss you. We will see you again, no doubt.

Karen: How's goin? I love you so much, sweetie. Thank you for staying with me even when times got tough. I could not have made it through school without you, and I thank god every day that you are with me. I cannot wait to spend the rest of our lives together. I know that we will be just fine wherever we spend our days. I love you!!!

My gratitude to all the Tomasio's for supporting me in every aspect of my life and believing that anything is possible to achieve with diligence and hard work. You are all the most dedicated and caring people I will ever know. The strength of our family comes from the solidarity and commitment that each of us offers to it.

Jen, everything that is wonderful in our lives we have earned together and you have worked hard to make this dream a reality for us. You are the strength and foundation for our family and the years that we've been together have been the best of my life. Thank you for your unwavering love and encouragement. You are the most honest and genuine person I know. The children and families that you serve are fortunate to have you in their lives.

Thank you, Bill and Denise, for your encouragement and for trusting me with the most important people in your life.

Sierra and Liam, thank you for making every day more vibrant and exciting. Being with you and watching you grow in mind and spirit is the greatest source of joy in my life.

First and foremost, I want to thank God. You've always been there for me, even when I wasn't looking. You've been looking out for me since day one, and I would never have done anything without You.

Kathy: Thanks for putting up with me, supporting me, and being so wonderful to come home to. I love you.

Mom and Dad: You've been more supportive than I could have ever asked for; there is no way to repay you, so I can only give my heartfelt gratitude.

Todd: Thanks for being such a great person to vent to and bounce ideas off of. I really appreciate having you to talk to.

The crew at PCOM: It's been fun going through this with you guys. Thanks for making it fun, and for helping me learn a lot more than just medicine these last four years.

Mom and Dad: You've got yourselves three confident, compassionate and determined children as a direct result of superior parenting. Dad, thanks for all the assistance in times of need, as well as the times I really didn't need it. Mom, you still worry too much, but I'm thankful that you do. Most of all I'm thankful to both of you for your loyalty, trust and love. You've always proclaimed with such pride that I was your son. Well, I'm proud of you too. I Love you.

Rene and Bernadette: I know I wasn't the stereotypical big brother, but that was because you both were smart and strong enough to take care of yourselves. I was watching. Thanks for all your concern and love over the years it hasn't gone unnoticed. I'm truly blessed to have you as sisters. I love you both.

Pat and Anthony: I couldn't be more pleased with my sisters' choices in mates. Thanks for the support and lending hands. I'm extremely grateful.

Sarina: Hey, there little niece. You're still much too young to realize what a wonderful family you've been born into or how special you've made our lives since you arrived. You're our little gift from heaven.

The boys from Marple/Media: Thanks for the continuing friendship over the years, especially these past four when I couldn't equally return the jester. You've become the measuring sticks that I use to choose who enters my truly inter-most circle of friends, and you've set the bar unattainably high. I cherish you all.

To my newly encountered friends: What can I say? If it wasn't for you all I'd probably would of finished at the top of the class, aced the boards and gotten an elite residency. No, seriously thanks for making the past four plus years fun and memorable. I thank: The Mean Machine for keeping me off the streets on Saturdays; Luke for the trips from the Post-Post to Vegas and all the stops in between; Jim and Wendy for the St. Patty's "floor show" at the Irish Pub; Dina for tips on peanut butter hair treatments; Alison for bringing religion into my life by baptizing my seat at boards; Deidre for not crashing your car while I was in it; Ameet for the chance to dance with livestock at your wedding and Deirdre for all the hours of A/C and cable TV. Mom and Dad- Thanks for your emotional and financial support throughout my education. I couldn't have gotten to this point without you. You laid the foundation for who I am.

The Sisters- Thanks for keeping my head from getting too big, for making me various snacks when I came home, and for all the love.

The Grandparents- Thanks for the genes, support, and advice.

Peter- You have put up with me through all the good times and bad. You have been nothing but supportive and understanding and I thank you for all the wonderful things you have done.

Jessie- You believed in me even when I didn't. You are my rock.

PCOM friends- KJV Our study groups were not only educational but also quite entertaining. You three made me strive to do better. Kris I loved to fight and by now I am sure you have realized I'm always right. Jill you have been a terrific roommate and friend. Vlady words can't describe. Kim aka Pastel I will never quit torturing you, I will never like your shoes, and I will always be your friend. Dave K your philosophy on life is amusing. Cardio Girls- you three rock. "Many, O Lord my God, are the wonders you have done. The things you planned for us no one can recount to you; were I to speak and tell of them they would be too many to declare."

Psalms 40:5

The Zoe Kind of Life

The devil is not bigger than God.
Circumstances are not bigger than God.
Disease is not bigger than God.
My Father is greater than all.
He is my Father, and He lives in me.
He'll put me over.
He'll make me a success.
I'm not afraid of anything.
The Greater One is in me.
He's greater than tests and trials.
He's greater than any other power I face.
He's greater than any other force that could come against me.
I expect Him, in every crisis of life, to rise up within me.
I expect Him to give illumination to my mind.
I expect Him to give strength to my body.
I expect Him to give direction unto my spirit.
He lives in me.
The Greater One lives in me!
I cannot be defeated.
I cannot fail.
My faith is in Him.
My confidence is in Him.
I am strong in His power. Oh, glory.

YES!

All honor and glory to God, Jesus Christ my Lord and Savior! Thank you for the powerful gift of faith, the strength to believe, and this humbling opportunity to serve you through medicine! Thank you for waking me up every morning, in my right mind and good health, to see another day to say amen. Thank you for the gift of life - my life, and for such beautiful blessings: my family and friends.

Mommy and Daddy: To be unconditionally loved by such multi-dimensional, wise, funny, and God-fearing people who love each other is the BEST! You've been there for me from the beginning and through this whole process, constantly encouraging, and lifting me up in prayer. You're my role models and best friends. I truly honor, love and cherish you with my heart. YES! WE DID IT!

Jennifer: Being related to you is a privilege I relish in everyday! You've ALWAYS been on my side no matter what! Love you.

Regina Buckley, Kimberly Baldwin, Tami Fuller, Calida Garcia, and Carmen Sandridge: My road dogs! Thank you for the many roles you've taken in my life, sticking by me through this and all of life's DRAMA! Ya'll know I love you too!

Extended West-Stephenson family and friends, "Aunt" Shirley Maddrey, Mrs. Booker, and all of the dedicated physicians I've encountered: Thank you for your love, laughter, encouraging words, prayers, clinical pearls, book/rent/gas/food money! I share this accomplishment with you all and hope to make you proud.

Mom: You believed in me even when I didn't believe in myself, always standing in the wings with a compassionate ear to listen and a comforting shoulder to lean on. Never tiring, never judgemental. You have shown me amazing courage, strength, and unconditional love and kindness like no other. Every one of your encouraging words, smiles, and hugs have engraved a special mark on my heart. Thank you for helping me make my dream a reality. I would never have made it this far without you! I love you!

Billy and Carrie: Thanks for letting me shine, for standing behind me throughout this long journey, and for always bringing me back down to earth when I can't seem to find my way. I have learned more from you both than you'll ever know. I only hope that as we continue to grow up.... we continue to grow closer.

My Roomies: Wow chicas.....it's been a long haul....8 years of laughter, tears, silliness, adventures, mishaps..... You guys are like sisters to me. I'm lucky! I couldn't have asked for two better friends to share my life with. Our paths may lead us in different directions, but our bond will keep us together for life.

Sweetie: No one said medical school was going to be easy...for either of us! Thanks for loving me, standing by me and believing in me. Thanks for rescuing me from myself when I need it most and for helping me enjoy the little things in life. You've taught me so much about life and love. Who knows what the future holds.

"True knowledge exists in knowing that you know nothing. And in knowing that you know nothing, that makes you the smartest of all."

- Socrates

Our lives paths have led us to a common point, the achievement of Doctorate of Osteopathy. We now reach a summit, for which we behold the landscape of our future. Our objective now is not to become complacent with this zenith of achievement, but to contrive methods to continue to better ourselves; and act in concert with our peers to better the profession. We may not all have seen eye-to-eye during our four years at P.C.O.M., but with experience comes knowledge. So I say to all in the Class of 2003 - Good Luck in your ventures, God Bless, & let us work together to better medicine.

Firstly, thank you to my parents and brother for believing in me and standing behind me. Nonna, ti amo tanto, tanto, tanto. To my cousin, Dr. Joseph Lombardi, thank you for keeping the fire lit, for your advice and help. Per mi amici, grazie per tutti: Adam, Avidon, Becky, Britt, Charles, Dave, Donny, Farah, Lisa, Mark, Mike⁴, Pete, Rich, Staci, Theresa, Tim, Tina, Wendy, & everyone I missed - Vini, Vidi, Vici. Drs. Lannutti and Simelaro, you believed in me and took me under the Simelutri wing and helped to mold what I am today, for that I forever owe my gratitude. Drs. Levin, Valentino, Carabello, Cavallero, Lavelle, Forman, Skultety, Godfrey, Blackstone, Bacik, McGinley, Potter, & Dimitriou: Thank you for being the teachers that you are. To my fiancée Bernadette, I save you for last because you are the foundation that stabilizes my life. You have stood by me like no other person. I can only repay you by loving you the best I can. Finally, I dedicate this achievement to the late Armando & Theresa Ranieri...Grandpop & Grandmom. You both may not be here on Earth to see me graduate, but I hope that you are looking down on me with pride. I truly miss both of you dearly.

Mom: Your loving hand has shaped my future from the beginning of my life. I could not even begin to thank you for the unwavering love, caring and support you have given me. Everything good within me I owe to you.
My Grandparents: I love you all and I appreciate every day I have with you. I hope I have made you proud. Thank you for so many years of happiness! Grandpa Julius, I will miss you always.

Ross: My younger brother, I have so much to learn from you! My admiration and respect for you is without peer; you are at the top of a short list composed solely of those whom I wish to emulate the most. I love you very much, but is that $25,000 PER NUGGET?!

Friends whom I hold dear: You know who you are. Thank you for being there for me; for seeing me safely through some of the darkest days of my entire life. I could not have accomplished this spectacular achievement without your help. Wistfully, may we all stay in touch.

Colleagues: I am proud to stand among you. Congratulations to all!!

Mom and Dad: I cannot begin to thank you enough for everything you have given me in my lifetime. Your continued love and confidence in me over the past four years has been essential. Mom, you have taught me to feel love and compassion and you have given me wisdom in life's little lessons. Because of you, I strive to be a better person. Dad, you have taught me a strong work ethic, dedication, the will to never give up and the desire to succeed in all aspects of life. Thank you both.

Kristy: My little sister. What a joy to watch you grow and mature. I wish you the best of luck.

Family/Friends: Thanks for your continued love, support and understanding during this trying journey.

Tony: My roommate. My best friend. What a trip the last eight years have been. Thank you for always being there for me when it mattered.

Sugar Hill: What a unique collection of individuals! So many good times and memories. Thanks for teaching me to live life to the fullest.

PCOM Friends: Thank you for making med school filled with enjoyable and memorable experiences. PCOM Prom, studying for boards and after exam parties, just to name a few.

Mike: Three words for 3M.....Happy Mardi Gras!

Apo: My spiritual mentor. The epitome of strength and the foundation of our family.
Ama: You are always in my heart. I love you both.

Mama: I can NEVER repay you for all your unconditional love and understanding. You are an unbelievable mother and an amazing friend. Thanks for pushing me to never give up. I love you!!!

Papa: If I can be 1/2 as incredible in business and 1/2 as brilliant in medicine as you, then I will be happy. I'm so lucky to have you in my life. Thanks for inspiring me, I love you!!!

Freddie: Despite how you continually follow me wherever I go and all our quirky arguments, I am very proud of you. I've got nothing but love for you, kid.

Kat: My "dahling" best friend. We were fated to be sisters. I love you, Ms. Thang!

Myint Clan: I could not have asked for a crazier group of 29 good-lookin', trouble-makin' cousins to be proud of.

Barry: Thanks for these wonderful "Ithakas". I hope our futures cross again. If not in this lifetime, then definitely next life- I will look for you for more honeydew ice and late night Nintendo games. Ich liebe dich.

To my Heavenly Father: You provided me the path, showed me the way, and showered me with the gifts and blessings that made this journey possible. Everything happens for the good of those who love you. Lead me, Send me.

Mom & Dad: I thank you so much for the unconditional love and support. You both are my rock and pillar of strength. Thank you for teaching me about hard work, generosity, compassion, loyalty, and love. Mom, thank you for the all the good food every week. You are great. Dad, thanks for your advice and inspiration. You are my hero. Words cannot express how truly blessed I am to have such wonderful parents. I love you both very much.

Jaicy: My wife, My best friend. Words cannot describe how happy I am that you are a part of my life. Thank you so much for your love, patience support and prayers.

Jason & Jen: Thank you guys for encouraging me and believing in me. I love you both. So, who wants to be my first patient? Thanks in advance for babysitting.

Aunty, Amma & Ammachi: Thank you for all the love and prayers. I love you all.

Betsy: Thank you for the long seven years of friendship. I couldn't have done it without you. Thank you for all the support and words of encouragement.

My friends: Justin, Michelle, Sai, Chi, Rob, Catherine, Tochi, and Shabi. Justin you are the best friend that any person could hope to have. Sai, you are a great roommate. Guys, it was so much fun these four years. I couldn't have asked for better friends and I wish you all the best of luck in life.

Mom and Dad: Without you I would not be here. Thank you for everything you have done for me. You have been my inspiration in life and without your love and encouragement I wouldn't be where I am today.

My Family and Friends: Thank you for all of the good times we have had at parties and on family trips. I couldn't ask for a better group of people to grow up with or inherit into my life.

Team Suck and Back Row Gang: Thank you for making PCOM a fun and enjoyable time, especially our study days, nights out around Philly, and trips to AC. I'll never forget our trip to Myrtle Beach, Ocean City, and the trek to Jonathon's Landing.

Dominic Mark: You are the most precious gift I have ever received. I love you more than I could ever imagine. I can't wait to see you through all the stages of your life and be the best Dad that I can.

Mandie: You have been the most wonderful wife and best friend a guy could ever have. Thank you for all your love and support. You are always there for me. My love for you continues to grow each day as we proceed to the next step of our life together.

To my loving husband, Pierre: Thanks for being my wisdom in contemplative times, my rock in times of weakness and pillow of comfort in times of despair. Thanks for sharing your life with me, for I am truly a better woman for having done so. You are my better half and I thank God for you every day. I love you more than words can express. You are truly the wind beneath my wings.

My gift from God, Donovan: Your life has made my flame burn brighter and stronger.

Mom & Dad: Your encouragement and faith in me have been a source of strength. Thanks for making sure that I always saw the light at the end of the tunnel. I am forever blessed that I can call my parents friends.

Mom Dot: We did it!! Your strength and generosity have molded me into the woman I am today. Thanks for teaching me that exploring the question brings more wisdom than having the answer.

Dr. George & Pearl Vincent: My second mom & dad, thanks for your unconditional love and support. It's been a privilege being a part of your family and I am honored to be your daughter.

Uncle Roger & Aunt Kelly: I am eternally indebted to both of you. Thanks for being the big brother and sister I never had.

Kelly & Steven: Our friendship has endured the test of time. Thanks for your continuous support and exemplification of excellence.

My Family: Without knowing it, you all have been my inspiration to work harder, to stay strong, and to always succeed. Thank you for being the family "with character." My accomplishments are dedicated to Ba-Ba and Ma, who have dedicated their entire existence to our futures.

My Heart: No words can describe how I feel about you. Unwavering, patient, devoted and loving, you have endured these many years of long distance blues. I know we're ready and strengthened for whatever comes our way. I look forward to our upcoming decades together, as I become your wife, mother of your children, and partner through life.

Rhon and Vim: My soul sisters and best friends from childhood! Please know that our regularly scheduled three-way conversations kept me sane in the most challenging times. I'm blessed to have you for your true-to-heart advice and unrelenting laughs available anytime.

Nish: Thank you for our consistent fun times and shared supportive moments. I'm happy to have found a life-long friend in you. You are truly one of a kind!

Anuj: My guru on so many levels. Your good nature and spiritual strength will take you to the ends of the world as you please. Never doubt that, because I don't. Send me a postcard.

You Friends: Both those transient and those sustaining people who know who you are: I hope that I have made a mark in your life as much as you have in mine. Thanks for helping to promote, nurture, and challenge one another towards sometimes much-needed character growth. Let's be the excellent doctors who inspired us in the first place!

To my mom: Thank you for always being there for me. I really appreciate all that you've done for me. Your little boy has grown up, but he'll never stop loving you.

To my little sister: Leslie, you're the only sister I have and you've been there for me whenever I needed it. I love you more than I let you know.

To my Dad: I know you're very proud of me and watching down from above. I want you to know that I want to raise my own children in the same way you raised me.

To my friends: You guys make life fun. We had a lot of great times together and I hope they never end.

To Diane: You are the love of my life. I truly can't wait to start our own family and our own lives together. You have always been there for me. You are my strength, my direction, my inspiration, and my guiding light. I want you to know that whatever life's adventures we may undertake together, I will always be at your side. I love you.

First, Thank you Lord, God for carrying me through six years of PCOM. I would have never made it without your blessing.

Mom & Dad: Thank you for your guidance, love and support. I could not have asked for better friends or family. I love you and am very blessed to have you in my life.

Rashad: Daddy is finally graduating from school. You have been my drive to succeed even when I wanted to give up. You are another blessing that I thank God for. Now we can go and have some fun like we used to.

Denise: "You love me, especially different...." Jill Scott. I thank God for allowing us to share in each other and sharing in an unconditional love. "I love you from your hair follicle to your toenail...." Jill Scott (Y'all will get that later.) Next comes our Bean.

To the Xavier family: Keep the tradition going. Show PCOM what we are made of. To the gentlemen and ladies I rolled with in the Class of 2003, the parties were wonderful. You guys are one of the few reasons I enjoyed PCOM.

All members of SNMA: Graduates from 1997 to current members, I would have gone crazy if you guys were not there to party with and talk to. I wish you all the best and all the success in the world.

Last but not least to security and house keeping thanks for all your support over the years.

I want to thank the author and finisher of my faith, the only wise God, my Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Also, I thank my family for all of their support, love and prayers, starting with my mother—the African Queen—Ruth Eileen Williams. Mother, you are the reason why I've achieved all of my endeavors successfully. Thanks to my multi-faceted journalist/artist/singer sister Kimberly L. Williams and late father David D. Williams. To my grandparents Bishop Edward E. Williams and Ruth L. Williams—I extend a blessed appreciation for your love, spiritual guidance and support throughout my entire education. Thanks to my gift-giving Aunt Edna, whose loving tokens made my walk on this road so much smoother. And a heartfelt thanks to my remaining family, especially my Aunt Carolyn, Aunt Lynnette, Uncle Eddie, my cousins: Harold, Estelle, Jerry, Stephanie, Felicia, Eddie, Jonathan, and my church family, Bibleway, whose help and encouragement I honor.

Finally, I thank the brothers I've bonded with during this journey: Willie, Orestes, Ivan and Rashad. We've made it...this is just the beginning because the best is yet to come.

All glory & praises to my Lord, my Father, my Savior, my Holy Friend Jesus Christ. .
Thank you for saving me. You have gone so far out of your way to meet me. You've loved me while I was still your enemy. No words can express the gratitude in my heart. What can I say? What can I do but to wholly surrender my life to You.

MOM: You are the single most important person in my life. It was through your years of hard work, sweat, tears & heartache that got me to where I am today. You sacrificed your own freedom & comfort to come to a foreign land for me. A simple thank you is much of an understatement. I am forever indebted to you. I love you with all my heart & soul.

BRO: You are the guardian angel of my life. You have taken on the responsibilities of a father figure. My life is made much easier because of your hard work. Thank you for your years of support, supervision, and guidance. Without you I would not be where I am today. We finally made it!

FRIENDS: All my GCC and City Line crew, thank you for your friendships and patience. You've shown me more God given grace and love than my heart can handle. I love you all J

First and foremost I must thank GOD for his blessings, guidance and mercy. Through you I know that all things are possible.

Mom: You are the epitome of strength, courage and beauty. Your kindness and wisdom inspires me, thanks for loving me unconditionally. I hoped that I have made you and grandmom proud.

Tyree: Little brother, someday you will understand the ways of the world, don't forget to teach me when you do J. Until then, stay strong and remember that I will always love you.

Bill and other friends: Can you believe it? Ok, so now you have to take my advice (just kidding). Thanks for believing in me. Love ya.

To my PCOM Friends: Thanks for all of the love, late night cry bouts, and most importantly the laughter. You have helped keep me sane and for that I am eternally grateful.

Mom & Dad – thank you for your unwavering love and commitment to our family. You have given me more than you could ever imagine. Any success I have is because of you. God bless.

Amy – you are everything I could hope for in a sister. Your friendship means the world to me. My love always.

Mam & Pap – you were two of the most incredible people I have ever known. Your example of faith and perseverance will remain with me forever. You are in my heart.

Joel, Michelle & Madison – you have been a second family to me since college. Know that I will always be there for you.

Dave – you have been such a loyal and cherished friend during our time at PCOM. Best wishes as you begin a remarkable career as a physician.

Dave: A doctor and a lawyer—not bad, huh? I am so proud of the man you have grown up to be. Just remember to always try your best and you will succeed!

Mom-Mom, Mom-Mom, and Pop-Pop: Thanks for all of your prayers (and your gas money too!) I love you!

Pop-Pop Ray: I wish that you could be here, but I know that you are looking down on me from heaven. I miss you very much!

My Family: Thanks for the love and support. Three more years and I'll be looking for my patients!

Tia, Vlado, and Kim: My roomies! What can I say? We worked hard, but we had a blast. Thanks for making medical school so much fun!

Kris: You are my best friend and my true love. Your hard work and motivation inspires me. Thank you for always believing in me and making me smile. I can't wait to begin our new life together. Two Dr. Youngs—who would have ever thought? I love you!

Mom & Dad-You are there for me with love, support and the advice necessary to help me through medical school and life. As this door closes, many more are opening. I know you will both always be there for me. I thank you and love you.

Dina-My little sis. You will never know the love and support you have given me that drives me to succeed. Even if only through a phone call, you are always there. Thank you and don't worry, mom and dad still pay the bill. Love you

To the rest of the family (past and future)-Thank you for your love, kindness and even the occasional home cooked meal.

PCOM & Phi Sig friends- Thanks for the good times. Congrats to each of you for your many accomplishments.

Jill-It is the woman in you that I love and the child in you that makes me smile. Our life together is about to begin. May each day bring us closer to our dreams and untied in our hearts. I love you.

Holly: I could not have made it through the last four years without you. Thank you for all of your love and strength, and most importantly, for putting up with me. You make me a better person. I love you with all my heart and can't wait to call you my wife.

Mom & Dad: Thank you for your guidance and support throughout my life. You encouraged me to pursue my dream, even when times were rough. I am so lucky to have parents as wonderful as you.

Andy, Sandy, Susan, and Amy: You guys continue to set the bar pretty high. Thank you for doing so and sparking my drive to succeed. We had great times growing up, and I look forward to many more (even if I do get stuck sitting on the cooler at Thanksgiving dinner . . . again).

The Cioccis: I could not have asked for a more caring and loving family to add into my life. Thank you for everything.

F. B. and Friends: Thank you for continually reminding me that there is more to life than work. Without you, I would not have the courage to express myself artistically in front of complete strangers. I guess what I'm saying is that without you, I would not have perfected multiple stupid impersonations, played a kazoo and a hooter in a penguin suit before more than 200 people, or found a focus to display my general insanity for the common good. My family: Your endless love and support has always been my keystone. Your encouragement got me through some very hard times. I'll always remember with dread the "after dinner" flashcards ... but thank you Mommy. My accomplishments are as much yours as they are mine. I'm so lucky to have great grandparents who are able to share in my joy... you've been with me through it all. And yes, I made the right decision — I still love it!

David: You've been my intelligent, amazing medical oddity of a younger brother. You've helped me grow into the person I've become. You've been a best friend throughout my life. Remember I'll always be there for you.

Forever Friends

Just by the thought of you
I find myself all sad again.
I've lost you, but also gained.
I know I must be grateful,
But my soul is sad for you.

I'll remember you always
For the good you have done,
For the seed you have sown,
For the faith you have given me
And for the example you set.

Yet, I find myself all sad again,
In my thoughts,
In my joys.

My memories are all I have,
Unable to fill your void.

My four years are over and
I know I must be happy,
But the loss still remains
And the pain still lingers.
I need to tell you my new venture,
See your face,
Experience your smile
And hear your laugh.

I just so much wish
You could be here to enjoy this life goal
And partake in this joy!
Nevertheless, I know you are not here,
But I know your soul would have smiled.

But then again, although I am sad,
I know I am glad,
Because I know that we were friends.
I'll rest my heart in that...forever.

Congratulations!

Dr. Ivette Christine Espinosa

We are so proud of your accomplishment!

You have been blessed with a great mind and a heart of deep compassion – a truly wonderful combination of gifts from God.

You have used them for years to better and strengthen yourself, and now you will be using these same gifts to help and strengthen others in need.

Throughout these four years, we've seen you set your goals, shed some tears at times, and work tirelessly . . . always dedicated to your studies and your family. This commitment and dedication will indeed bring you great success in your future endeavors.

We wish you love, happiness, health, success, wisdom and continued fulfillment of your expectation. We love you dearly, and remember we will always be there for you! Te queremos mucho.

Love, Mom & Dad, Patty and Frank

Congratulations Ivette! We love you very much. Good Luck!

Love, Gaby, Adriana & Brandon

Congratulations to my darling wife Ivette. You have sacrificed so much and brought what you were born to do to fruition. You have always been and continue to be a great source of love, pride, inspiration, and strength.

Love Always, Luis E Fernandez

Congratulations! Dr. Mark Abraham

Mark,

It has been quite a journey and after this you are about to begin the most exciting adventure of all.

With all our Love and Support,

Nina, Mom & Dad

Congratulations

DR. JOSEPH LEO YOZVIAK, D.O.

Dear Jody, To have you for a son is a wonderful gift! You were born to be one of a kind, making a difference and making it known. We are so proud of you. We wish you health, happiness, and success. God Bless you as you continue to pursue your dreams. Continue reaching for stars and never settle for less than your heart's definition of true happiness. We love you, Dr. Yozviak!!
- - Mom and Dad

Dear Jody, It's so hard to believe how quickly the past four years have come and gone. It hasn't always been easy, but you have demonstrated incredible strength and resolve during challenging times. Your ambition and enthusiasm have been a true inspiration to me. I am so proud of you and your many accomplishments, and I wish you great success. I love you and can't wait to call you my husband!
- - Holly

Life Goes On...

Congratulations, dear Steve. You are the quintessential Renaissance man, proving once and again that nothing is beyond your reach. And, though you have already lived many lives and enjoyed bountiful successes, you have always remembered to live in accord with the important things in life - peace of mind, love, freedom from the world's harnesses of mind and soul. You make us proud and bring joy and love to our lives that is dimensionless – you always have. Go forth with happiness to your next adventure and continue to live well, and do as you always have in bringing those around you to a greater sense of happiness and well-being. We love you, Momma, Lori, & Clark

David A. Kenny, D.O.

David, Congratulations on your accomplishment and thank you for instilling great pride and love in our hearts forever! We love you,

I FEEL SO BLESSED TO STILL BE ALIVE TO SEE YOU ACHIEVE THE GOAL YOU'VE HAD TO BECOME DOCTOR SINCE THE 10TH GRADE. WE BOTH PRAYED AND SPOKE TO EACH OTHER CONSTANTLY, WE VISITED EACH OTHER WHEN WE WERE APART, WE UPLIFTED EACH OTHER SPIRITUALLY AS WE SHARED THE JOURNEY TO THIS DAY OF GRADUATION. YOU ARE A BLESSING TO ME AND YOU WILL ALSO BE A BLESSING TO MANY.

I, YOUR FATHER, BROTHERS, AND SISTER, AND ALL YOUR OTHER FAMILY ARE PROUD OF YOU AND WE PRAY GOD'S BLESSINGS ON YOU AS YOU SERVE AS A GOD SENT HEALER OF MANKIND

LOVE,

Mom, Dad, Jason, Mil, Fil, Ryan and Scott

Congratulations
Dr. Amy Kerner, D.O.
YOU DID IT!

It was a long journey and you stayed focused on your goal. You realized your dream of becoming a doctor. Your positive attitude, intuition, unselfishness, compassion and desire to help others will always guide you. You deserve the success and happiness that will come to you in the future.

Words can't express how we feel and how proud we are of you and all you have accomplished.

May God richly bless you in all you do.
WE LOVE YOU!

Mom and Dad

Dr. Wendy Mikulski, D.O.

We have watched you work hard all your life to become a doctor, today that dream comes true. We're so proud of you Wendy, on this achievement. We wish you happiness and success for your future.

Congratulations
Dr. Heather Nicole Multari

You had the choice to "Sit it out or dance". We are so very proud that you "chose to dance". You'll dance on many stages, and with each step a life will be touched and be made better for it. We were as proud of you in tights as we are in your clinical coat, but the mantle of accomplishment is now there for all to see. Well done!

Love, Mom, Dad, Hillary, and Robbie

From the Editor's Desk

I would like to thank some very important people who helped make the Synapsis 2003 a success.

A huge thanks to my Co-editor Phil Taormina, for taking on a truly thankless job. Without him this book would have in no way been possible. Thank you for spending so many late nights making sure that everyone's senior page was just right, for retyping so many personal statements, and sifting through what seemed like thousands of old faculty and department photographs. Many thanks on behalf of the class of 2003.

Thanks to Deidre Day for cropping senior pages and for assisting in making the timeline just a little more amusing. But most of all thanks for spending countless hours helping to sift through the hundreds of class candid photos that now make up our class memories, and keeping your uplifting sense of humor while doing it. We couldn't have done this without you!

Thanks to Mark Abraham for taking on the tedious task of collecting for the ads section and for fielding tons of requests and questions from friends and family.

Thanks to Yvonne Galella for cropping senior pages as well as class candid photos and for lending a helping hand whenever we needed it.

Thanks to Jen White for the time spent collecting, organizing, and cropping the pages for the Class of 2004, as well as for all the help with the senior pages.

Thanks to Kelly DeVoogd for organizing all the photo shoots of organizations, clubs, and faculty. Thanks also for all of your help in organizing and cropping underclassmen candid photos.

Thanks to Heather Doan, Courtney Dawley, Rebecca Vreelan, and Dave Kanz for all your help cropping photographs for the underclassmen pages.

Thanks to Hank and Denise for helping us whenever we needed it. Hank, thanks for making sure the yearbook always stayed on track.

Thanks to Carl Wolf Studios for providing us with all of the Senior photos, as well as faculty and organizations. They turned out great!

Thanks to Bruce Fairfield in Media Services for providing us with beautiful shots of our campus as well as many other photographs we requested.

Last, but not least, a special thank you to Phil Klein, our Jostens representative. Thank you for all your patience dealing with a most unexperienced yearbook staff and teaching us from scratch. You spent many hours working with us in the trenches making sure that this book was completed. We couldn't have done it without you!

Sincerely,
Melissa Iglesias
